

Off the Race Track: From Color-Blind to Color-Kind (Paperback)

By Steve SIMMS

Independently Published, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. "What you are about to read is both a history and the personal experience of Steve Simms from Tennessee. Steve grew up in the segregated South--but had no idea the "racial divide" was as great as it was, nor why it existed in the first place. He speaks from the heart, while not skirting the main issue of racism in America--its history and present despair - but he provides incredible hope for America's struggle with this most volatile issue. Seriously - you will not want to put this book down--it's just too dynamic. It's time to address these issue in a way of reconciliation and restoration of our fragmented society . . . this book has come during a most divisive time in American history . . . may it be a "balm in Gilead" to heal our wounds. Doug Krieger, Rtd. California Public Schools Administrator, Editor, Tribnet Publications: "Despite the many changes, our nation still struggles with racism and its legacy. Steve Simms walks us bravely through our dark history of slavery, while managing to do so with warmth and grace. He introduces us to unsung heroes,...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Ally Reichel

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
