VULNERABLE YOUTH: BACKGROUND AND POLICIES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. The majority of young people in the United States grow up healthy and safe in their communities. Most of those of school age live with parents, and attend schools that prepare them for advanced education or vocational training and, ultimately, self-sufficiency. Many youth also receive assistance from their families during the transition to adulthood. During this period, young adults cycle between attending school, living independently,...
