Comparison of US and EU
Approach to Biotech
Protection: Case analysis

LAP Lambert Academic Publishing Nov 2016, 2016. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - This book essentially explores judicial attitude towards the development of underlying policies and legislations of IPR as it relates to patents and biotechnology inventions. The interpretation either widens or shrinks the scope of protection afforded to a particular invention which would either diminish the incentive for invention and innovation. Innovations are catalyst for development hence nations can attain and maintain top positions in industrial and technological advancement; through...
