Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. As dark clouds gathered in the sky and thunder reverberated angrily across the top of the mountains of Green County, 26-year-old Keena Windsor tossed her jet-black hair behind her slender shoulders, put on her helmet, and revved the engine of her father's expensive, vintage-style Harley Davidson. "You sure about this?" her boyfriend Alex yelled from his dressed-up Suzuki motorcycle. "It's gonna be one hell of a storm and that reporter said there might be multiple hurricanes to hit the area!" Keena threw him a mischievous smile through her helmet. "If it's gonna be one hell of a storm, then it's gonna be one hell of a ride!" she exclaimed above the increasing noise of the spattering rain and deafening thunders. "And since when did you start listening to the news?!" Alex shrugged, running a hand across his now soaking chin-length brown hair. "You're the boss," he muttered. "Don't tell me you're chickening out!" Keena scoffed, almost laughing. "No way," Alex retorted. "Just looking out after my chick." He flexed his tattooed muscles then, which were bulging through his black shirt, before he positioned himself to take off. "And I'm just showing my current boy toy how to have a fuckin' good time," she countered. "I can show you how to heat it up and have a good time in this freezing weather," he said suggestively, his brown eyes burning with desire. "Later," Keena said, smirking. She was beginning to get aroused especially since she couldn't help admiring his well-built body. Her fervent green eyes flicked through his striking physique and then lingered a bit at the lump in his groin, quite evident even through the thick material of his tight-fitting jeans. Lightning flashed through the...
