

Somebody's Darling (Paperback)

By Linda Fausnet

Wannabe Pride, United States, 2019. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. He finally found the love of his life. 150 years after his death. In modern-day Gettysburg where ghosts roam among the living, Confederate soldier Jesse Spenser drifts aimlessly. The only light in his lonely existence is Lucy, a lovely waitress who works in a tavern in town. Falling more in love with each passing day, Jesse yearns to speak with her and tell her how he feels. Lucy fears the ghosts that are said to haunt Gettysburg, so Jesse approaches her with great care. After overcoming her initial terror, Lucy develops a friendship with Jesse that soon blossoms into more. Lucy's love and understanding brings Jesse a sense of peace, which only brings him closer to his final destination; Heaven. Jesse and Lucy have found soulmates in one another, but will they lose their chance at true love if Jesse crosses over to the other side?
