MANIPULATION AND DECEPTION: THE SECRET WARS OF LATIN AMERICA (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. The author has been called the American Tolstoy. This is some of his life in Washington DC, Honduras, Latin America, and Houston. He wrote "Stock Markets of Latin America, 1965," a proposal for a Latin American Wall Street Journal," seven encyclopedia articles, "The GDP per Worker by Economic Sector for Honduras, 1965," "A Chemical Industry from Waste in Lumbering and Charcoal Industry," and the idea of creating a Parana-Paraguay River Basin Development Commission. James is the author who meets Zenora Khan from San Fernando, Trinidad worked with the Trinidad Embassy and typed up James's articles on development in Latin America and James took them to the World Bank, Inter-American Bank, AID, and Congress. Zenora became pregnant and came down with leukemia and bore a healthy baby girl, Khairan. After Zenora passed on James took a job with Transportation Consultants International to do the economic feasibility study for the Cenral Highway of Honduras which doesn't exit. James has two assistants who help him with compiling date on GDP per Department (State) and GDP per worker by economic activity and from a soils map of the valleys of the highway he produces the future tonnage from agriculture and lumbering that units northern and Eastern Honduras to the center of Honduras. Donovan the project manager and Bellows, the surveyor drink together every night and Bellows made a huge mistake in using a tellurometer that puts the whole alignment off, and Donovan wants James to say "the highway is not economically feasible to build." But James says without the highway, Honduras will be in a difficult situation so Donovan says James is not capable of doing the job and TCI hires the son of an AID official to say...
